

Trio of shows by VAcT

Verona Area children's Theater put on a trio of shows last weekend at Verona Area High School involving more than 250 performers. Each show was performed four times from Thursday, April 12, through Saturday, April 14, with two shows on Saturday. Kindergartners and first-graders took part in a 20-minute "mini-musical" called "A Race to the Finish," with the 30-minute "The Jungle Book KIDS" following it and featuring second- through fourth-graders. Finally, fifth- through eighth-graders performed "Bye Bye Birdie Young Performers Edition" after a break between the earlier shows and the latter.
